To the Public.

The Sentinel, having double the circulation in the city, and more than treble out of it, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

Every Business Man who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of The Daily Sentinel,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but every word true.

News Digest.

Jas. T. Brady, the Breckinridge candidate for Governor of New York, made a speech at Albany, yesterday, in which he proclaimed "war to the knife" against the Douglas faction, and also stated that in case of Lincoln's election the Republican party would be the only National party, and would continue in the ascendant, while Douglas would never more be heard of. Every word true.

The great race on the Fashion Course, between Planet and Congaree, resulted in an easy victory for the former. Daniel Boone was withdrawn, owing to an accident which befell him.

The Prince of Wales, after enjoying a two days' hunt on the prairies of Illinois, took his departure for St. Louis yesterday.

A boiler explosion took place at Pittsburgh, Monday, by which ten lives were lost.

Green County all Alive—The Recent Mass Meeting at Monroe.

The recent Mass Meeting at Monroe, was one of the largest political gatherings ever seen in the State; and also orderly and full of the right spirit. The sons of Green county are all alive and ready for the great battle. There were few from abroad, and yet there were about 10,000 present. Good music, good arrangements, a warm welcome and a splendid Wide-Awake display made all feel happy. Then the very able speeches of Judge Doolittle and Gov. Randall, awakened the patriots in the afternoon. The people, still interested in hearing, met at the court house in the evening, and were addressed most happily by Myron H. Orton. Then the editor of the Times was called out, and after him, Hon. B. Dunwiddie. No appearance of weariness, but a feeling of enthusiasm pervaded the whole mass. It was a time to be long remembered. Green county is O. K., and if they do not prove it at the polls, then we will say there is no faith to be put in the intelligence or truth of honest men.

THE WIDE-AWAKES.

Nearly 500 Wide-Awakes were present—companies from Monroe, Albany, Brodhead, Decatur, Clarno and Juda, being on parade. About half-past seven o'clock in the evening the various companies met at headquarters for a torch-light display. A slight, tho' cold rain, was falling, and the streets were quite muddy. Nothing daunted, however, the brave fellows turned out to a man, and made a splendid display. The Monroe company generously furnished every man with Roman candles, which, at a given signal—the companies being in single file around the square—were fired, giving a brilliant effect. Altogether, it was a beautiful sight.

The Wreck of the Lady Elgin.

The portion of the ill-fated Lady Elgin which was not shattered to pieces by the collision with the Augusta, is now riding at anchor opposite Winnetka, in the very track of vessels sailing up and down the Lake. This is that portion of the hull forward of the wheel, and which is held in its place by the anchors attached to the chain cables, which fell overboard when she first went down. Every one can see that great and constant danger to vessels is caused by allowing this wreck to thus remain in the pathway of vessels going to and from this port. If it is not soon removed we shall very probably be obliged to chronicle the loss of another vessel and of many lives, by a collision with this floating hulk. It is in the exact position to render such a catastrophe imminent. Whose business is it to see that this dangerous wreck is removed? The owner of the Lady Elgin has given the wreck up to the Insurance Companies, and they appear to be of different minds as to their responsibility in the matter. Is it not the duty of the government officers having charge of the Lakes to see that this obstruction is removed forthwith. It is certainly somebody's business—that somebody ought to attend to it before any more lives are lost.

Accident. — In Johnstown, says the Janesville Gazette of last Friday, George Dickson, a lad eleven years old, and son of the Rev. H. H. Dickson, had his foot so badly injured in the horse-power of a threshing machine, as to require the amputation of a part of it. He had been gratified in a request to drive the team attached to the horse-power during the temporary absence of a man who had been engaged for that purpose, and the consequence is the unfortunate result we have noticed. Too much caution cannot be observed in working these machines.

The Editor of the Lansing (Michigan) Journal promised to send his paper to Republicans and take his pay when Douglas was elected President. Sixteen subscribers from Mason, Ingham Co., were obtained on these terms, but the Editor, growing wiser in the meanwhile, utterly refused to throw so much money away.

Mrs. Gurney's Letter.—The New York papers are all barking at the Tribune for the publication of Mrs. Gurney's bogus letter. The New York press accuse the publishers of it with advocating and inculcating adultery.

The New York Tribune and the Milwaukee Wisconsin are the only two papers that we know of which published the affair.

Methodist Conference.—The Wisconsin Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, commences in Janesville this morning. Bishop Scott will preside. About 150 clergymen will be present.

We notice by an exchange that seven of the Democrats who carried torches in the Douglas demonstration at Franklin, Ind., at its conclusion came out and declared that they would train in that crowd no longer.—See how familiarity breeds contempt.

Theodore Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, the friend and associate of Henry Clay upon the Whig ticket of '41, now supports the Republican candidates.

The Waukesha Journal, giving an account of the Green County Fair, says:

The Ladies' Equestrian display was fine, but the grand entertainment was the marriage of S. M. Knox, in the church, after the address. Every part of the church was crowded to its utmost capacity; and everything passed off as merry as a marriage bell.

The Wisconsin State Fair.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Madison, Tuesday, Sept. 25th, '60.

The Annual Exhibition of the State Agricultural Society, opens under very favorable auspices. It is the universal remark, that never were the grounds arranged in a more convenient or tasteful manner.

The order and perfect neatness everywhere prevailing, seems the distinguishing features eliciting admiration.

Order in one's external arrangements pretty surely indicates that there is no confusion among the intellectual possessions. So we may quite surely aver that the executive arrangements of the Society comports with the nice system prevailing in all preparations for the convenience and enjoyment of exhibitors and visitors.

Secretary Hoyt, and indeed all the officers, are indefatigable in their efforts to make the Fair a success.

To obtain this object, a thoughtful regard for all the interests incident to such an occasion is evinced.

It is their desire that everything presented, either for competition or exhibition, should be suitably and satisfactorily displayed, and that without partiality all shall receive strict justice. We are sure if there is a failure in any of the vast amount of minor details, it will come from some quarter unguarded, because unforeseen.

The weather, yesterday, somewhat threatening, is now propitious, and we are enjoying one of Madison's most brilliant days.

The people of Madison have opened their houses with free hospitality, so that no one need be unaccommodated with an abiding place. The entries in all departments are considered unusually large, and constant fresh arrivals are being arranged for inspection. In the way of fruits and vegetables, magnificent specimens of the past years growth are on all sides spread out.

We feel that Wisconsin fully realizes the fair promises of bountiful harvests, through the summer prophesied. The show of fruit exceeds anything since the season of '55.

Among the Pomologists from abroad, is Dr. Kennicott, fresh and enthusiastic as ever in his love for fruits and flowers. A detailed description of the Fair is hardly possible, as all the articles are not yet duly arranged. M.

The Verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the Lady Elgin Catastrophe.

The Jury of Inquest in the case of the Lady Elgin disaster, met yesterday morning, and returned the following verdict:

State of Illinois, } ss.
Cook County. }

An Inquisition was taken for the people of the State of Illinois, at the Court House, in the city of Chicago, in said county of Cook, on the 9th day of September, A. D. 1860, before me William James, Coroner, in and for said county, upon the view of the body of Michael Rich, then and there lying dead, upon the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of said county, who, being duly sworn to enquire, on the part of the people of the State of Illinois, into all the circumstances attending the death of said Michael Rich, and by whom the same was produced; and in what manner, and when and where the said Michael Rich came to his death, do say, upon their oaths, as aforesaid, that the said Michael Rich came to his death by drowning, on the morning of the eighth day of September, 1860, on Lake Michigan, near Chicago, in consequence of a collision between the schooner Augusta and the steamer Lady Elgin.

The Jury find that the steamer Lady Elgin was thoroughly inspected in June, previous to the disaster and from the evidence before them of her different officers who have commanded her, and persons who have repaired and inspected her, they believe she was a sea-worthy steamer.

They find that the evidence of the United States Inspectors which has been before them, is to the effect that she was properly equipped with floats, boats, oars, axes, buckets, and other means of preserving life in accordance with the laws of the United States.

They find that she had aboard the requisite number of officers and crew, and that her officers were competent and sober men.—That her certificate of inspection permitted her to carry three hundred passengers, two hundred in the cabin and one hundred on deck. That on the night of the disaster, she had on board more than three hundred passengers; but they have no evidence of the exact number.

They find further in regard, that the testimony of the experts presented before them was to the effect that the United States Certificate of Inspection concerning the number of passengers is given to boats upon a calculation of a certain number of feet to each passenger and that five or six hundred passengers would not be a dangerous load for the Lady Elgin; yet the jury censure the owners and officers of the boat for receiving aboard more passengers than the law permitted, and say that it is a dangerous and far too common practice to overload steamboats such as the present.

They are of opinion that the Inspector's Certificate should be in all cases strictly followed and enforced, and although, in this case, the disaster seems not to have been caused by this excess of passengers, yet they can see no excuse for exceeding the number allowed the Lady Elgin by a legal certificate.

They find that the schooner Augusta had the proper number of officers, and that Capt. Malott is an old experienced seaman; but have no proof of the competency of the other officers.

They also find that both steamer and schooner had lights so placed on the night of the disaster, as in accordance with the requirements of the law, and they consider, first, the cause of the collision to be defective arrangement in the lights, as appointed by law, to be carried on board of sailing vessels.

Under the present law, a vessel, when carrying a bright light, may vary her course at least eight points, without being obliged to alter the color or arrangement of her lights, and that the variation in the course of a vessel of any one of these points, is liable, at any time, to prove fatal to lake craft.

The Jury, as a further cause of the disaster, censure the second mate of the schooner Augusta for not informing the captain of the light, when he came on deck previous to the collision, and for neglecting to keep watch of the steamer's lights, since he testifies that he saw them three-quarters of an hour previous to the collision, and they further find that the second mate was incompetent to manage the schooner.

The Jury further find from the evidence before them, that the schooner Augusta was seen by the steamer Lady Elgin some four or five minutes before the collision, and that the wheel was put hard a port, and that the order to place the wheel in that position, was such an one as experts testify should have been given under the circumstances.

The Jury find farther that Capt. Malott is censurable for not lying to or coming to an anchor and hoisting a light in the rigging, after the collision, to ascertain whether the steamer was in need of assistance; inasmuch as he should have been aware from the shock of the collision that serious damage was done to the steamer.

They find that the Captain and engineers of the Lady Elgin stood at their post after the collision, and did their duty to the last:

Jury are of opinion that all Lake passenger boats should be built with water-tight compartments, and are confident that had this been the case with the Lady Elgin, the community would have been spared the shock of this lamentable disaster.

Two of the Jury, Henry M. Smith and S. W. King, after signing the above, made a protest, in which they take exception to the verdict in the following particulars:

They say that the Elgin had insufficient look-outs; that she was but illy and inadequately supplied with boats; and that her outfit of life preservers was faulty and defective, both as regards quantity and quality.

In these particulars they differ from the other jurors, and we believe from the community generally.

Improvements on the West Side.—The progress of West Water street within the past year is certainly without precedent in the growth of any other part of the city. No sooner is one improvement completed, than we see another commencing. Buildings, which a few years ago were looked upon as very respectable, and which, in a less enterprising place, would be left standing for half a century yet, are every little while disappearing to make room for more elegant and modern structures. The latest work of this kind is the demolition of the brick building known as Concert Hall, on the corner of West Water and Spring streets, which was commenced yesterday, to give place to a block of stores more in keeping with the other improvements in that locality. The new building is to be erected by by the owner of the present one, C. R. Austin, Esq.

Appointments by the G. W. C. T.—Hon. S. D. Hastings, the newly elected G. W. C. T. of the Independent Order of Good Templars of the State of Wisconsin, has made the following appointments for District No. 1, embracing the county of Milwaukee:

Alex. Morison, Lodge Deputy of No. 94
Byron Kilbourn, " " " 136
W. H. Stover, " " " 137
F. W. Hart, " " " 140
G. J. Fowler, " " " 143
R. O. Kellogg, " " " 179
A. H. Burdick, District Deputy G. W. C. T.

The Lodge Deputies are authorized to install officers and confer degrees in the absence of the District Deputy.

We, the undersigned merchants of the city of Milwaukee, agree to close our respective places of business at 7 o'clock P. M., from the first day of October, 1860, until the first day of April, 1861, excepting the last ten days of the month of December:

A. Whittemore & Co.,
Mack Bros.,
P. O. Dyke & Bro;
W. Danenbaum,
Candee, Dibble & Co.,
J. L. Davis,
J. W. Griswold,
J. H. Warner & Co.,
Hoffman Bros.,
Goll & Frank,
T. Welles & Hirshberg
Terry & Cleaver,
S. C. West,
Strickland & Co.

New Commission House.—Messrs. Berthelet & Wolley, Produce and Commission Merchants, have removed their office from the Red Warehouse, to Kilbourn's Block, No. 216 West Water street. Their business card will be found in our advertising columns. These gentlemen are comparatively new comers here, but they bring with them what is essentially necessary to success in their line of business—a good reputation.

The R. & L. Horse Railway.—The track on the Western Branch of the River & Lake Shore Horse Railway, is now laid to Chestnut Street Bridge, and as soon as the new cars arrive, it will be ready for business. A little paving is all that remains to be done. The work has been done in a very substantial and creditable manner, the track being so even with the pavement as to be scarcely visible.

Milwaukee Books.—Not long ago we noticed the fact that Meservey was about to publish a history of the Light Guards.—Very soon we expect to be able to chronicle the advent of friend Chapman's book of poems. And now we have indications of another Milwaukee book, to be issued some time in October, which will create a furore.

Republican Gathering in the Sixth Ward.—A large gathering of the Sixth Ward Republicans took place on Monday night, at the Wigwam. Excellent speeches were made by Messrs. Caverno and Domschke, and the best of feeling prevailed.

Messenger to the Common Council.—Master Edward Livingston, son of Mrs. Livingston, 226 Main street, has been appointed Messenger to the Common Council, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the loss of Master Lynch on the Lady Elgin.

Travelers will please notice that the Time Tables of the Milwaukee and Chicago road are made out according to Chicago time, which is fifteen minutes ahead of ours. By reference to our guide, at the head of the city column, this will be seen.

Our County Nominations this Fall.

Observing a communication in your paper this morning, over the signature of "Vox Populi," it suggested a few thoughts which I think pertinent, and commit them to paper for publication, if you think proper. Our Democratic friends have opened the fall campaign with frauds at the primary meetings for the selection of delegates to the County Convention, which have disgusted the more honest portion of that party.—Every body that could be induced to vote, from a Republican down to the most unscrupulous demagogue, have sought the willing hat, and put therein, not only double votes, but votes by the handful, to secure delegates for the nomination of some favorite candidate, thereby defeating the voice of the People, and rendering the whole proceedings decidedly anti-democratic.

Now that the Republican primary meetings are about to come off, I hope in every instance that delegates may be selected unpledged to any man, or set of men, for office, and at the meeting of the Convention they may consult together candidly, and select a ticket that can be supported on its merits alone; in which case only can it stand the least chance of success. Trickery on the part of any Republican to secure a nomination would prove sure defeat. We have a large majority to overcome, and an unscrupulous foe to deal with; and our best and strongest men must be nominated if we expect to succeed.

I think the Republican doctrine demands that the office should seek the man, not the man the office.

I have been a close observer of political management for more than twenty-five years, and throw out these hints believing them to be "sound to the core," and that "honesty is the best policy," even in politics.

One other suggestion and I have done.—Our Irish and German population, forming as it does, a large proportion of our community, ought to be represented in the ticket. It is no more than just and right, and many Republicans wish that it may be done.

REPUBLICAN.

Board of Aldermen.—The Board of Aldermen met on Monday evening, Mayor Lynde in the chair.

Several accounts for services on board the tugs Tift and Davidson, sent out in search of bodies lost by the Lady Elgin disaster.—Reported to Com. on Finance.

Report to light four certain gas lamps in the First Ward, adopted.

Communication from Geo. Cogswell, city assessor, submitting a complete assessment roll, and asking for an appropriation of $600 for his services. Referred to Finance Com.

Communication of City Comptroller, asking a reconsideration of a resolution appropriating money to firemen for refreshments. Referred to Finance Com.

Frederick Willmanns asked compensation for services for completing list of County taxes for 1859. Referred to Finance Com.

Resolution to the effect that the Comptroller add to the ward funds sufficient to repair certain streets and walks in the suburbs of the city. Ald. Orton said the city paid, last year, some $11,000 for broken limbs and property, and the road to the Forest Home Cemetery was greatly in need of repairs. Adopted.

Bills of R. Prindeville, for the use of the tug McQueen, amounting to six hundred and eighty dollars, were allowed.

A Resolution accompanying a communication of the Comptroller, recommending the payment of $6,000 to E. McGarry.—Adopted.

The Board adjourned to Thursday evening.

Rev. Mr. Bartlett at Home.—In a report of a sermon by Rev. Wm. A. Bartlett, of Brooklyn, New York, published in the New York Saturday Press, we find the following sentences:

"Each day is an anniversary with nature; each the product and efflorescence of all the past. In some sense the beautiful harvests of this season have germs in antediluvian ancestry. Nature's aristocracy is outraged if it does not antedate the æons, and her ethics and ecclesiastics rest upon apostolic succession from the primal gasses.

"Do the best you can where you are; when that is exhausted God will open a door for you, and a voice will call, 'Come up, hither into a brighter sphere.'

"A man's conscience should ever go with him like an atmosphere of life. Many men carry their consciences like a drawn sword, cutting this way and that in the world; but sheathe it and keep it very soft and quiet when it turns within.

"Divines seem very much to have overlooked the theological value of geology. From this ground might be delivered some of the most striking and interesting of all the sermons to be found in stones. The present needs of living men give the fullest significance to many of the old transitions and accumulations of the earth's strata. The column is long in erection, but man is its capital. Foreshadowings of his approach are to be discerned along the whole line of the geological changes. In him centre the special ends for which there are so many marvellous contrivances. Monstrous and minute creatures abounded in ancient seas and on Old World shores, but they have passed utterly out of being, and are known only by exhumation,—only in their sepulchral tablets.—Man, however, though later than all, is to outlast them all. He is never to pass out of existence. All components of our great system of life are perishable, except its culminating creature. He stands imperishable upon accumulated sepulchres. This latest birth of creative time shall witness the end of time."

The Genealogy of Lord Renfrew.—Editor Sentinel:—Some errors having been observed in the genealogy of the Prince, as published in yesterday morning's Sentinel, one of your readers would trace his lineage back to the mighty Roman, in the following manner:

The Prince of Wales is the oldest son of Victoria, who is the daughter of the Duke of Kent, who was the son of George the Second, who was the son of George the First, who was the son of Electress Sophia, who was the daughter of Elizabeth, who was the daughter of James the First, who was the son of Mary, Queen of Scots, who was the daughter of James the Fifth of Scotland, who was the son of Margaret, who was the daughter of Henry the Seventh, who was the son of Margaret, Countess of Richmond, who was the daughter of the Duke of Somerset, who was the son of John of Gaunt, who was the son of Edward the Third, who was the son of Edward the Second, who was the son of Edward the First, who was the son of Henry the Third, who was the son of John, who was the son of Henry the Second, who was the son of Matilda, who was the daughter of Henry the First, who was the son of William, the Conqueror.

LOUISE.

Let all prepare to attend the Requiem to-morrow night, for the benefit of the sufferers by the recent sad calamity.

A Goddess Errant.

I changed my dormitory yesterday, and slept in one with an out-look towards the East. This morning early, I was roused from slumber by a vague sensation, as though some intruding presence was in my room—My eyes were no sooner opened than they were filled with dazzling light, which poured through a single interstice of the open lattice. My first impression was, that it was from the moon, but moonlight it could not be, at this quarter of that luminary. Then I thought of meteors; but it was steady and permanent, and could not be that. And now what do you think I saw, as soon as vision could dwell upon the radiant object? Why, sneer if you please, oh, ye skeptics! there was a genuine goddess peeping in upon me through the shutters, fairly filling the room with the glory of her effulgent face.

And she was none of your slip-shodical, melancholy kind of deities, that go wringing their dishevelled hair among sea caves and fountains; nor was she of the strong-minded, Pallas Minerva style of creatures, either; but the very Goddess of Love and Beauty—the golden cinctured Aphrodite, Venus herself.

It was perhaps rather exceptionable conduct for the young lady to be looking into people's chambers at that hour of the morning, but we all know that she always was a little eccentric in her manners. However, I thought that she could scarcely complain at being looked at also; so I tore open the shutter, not, I confess, without a sly expectation of catching the merry dame en dishabille herself.

Never was I so mistaken before. Never before had I beheld her clad in robes of such brilliant and celestial purity. The landscape far and wide was lighted up with her radiance and the waters of old Michigan, which lay swelling and crisping before me, to the dim horizon, were all ashine with sparkling lights, as if the nymphs and naiads of waterdom had illuminated all their groves and grottoes in honor of her glorious presence. What did she there, poised thus on unseen pinions just above the line of lake and sky? She could not be at her old flirtations with Mars, for he wrapped his martial cloak around him on his western prairie bed hours ago.

Perhaps she is hovering over the couch of the sleeping Hyperion, and sowing his brain with the ravishing visions with which she peoples the dreams of lovers. It must be that, and nothing else. For this she has put on her rarest loveliness, and invoked all the magic power of her glittering cesture. She means mischief with the yellow-haired youth; so keep still, and we'll soon have music.

Look at her as she floats over the portals of the East, and what more enchanting vision can your imagination suggest?—Regnant surely she stands at this hour, over sky and earth. On many a couch, now doubtless, under her mystic influence, turn fair forms, restless with fancies of gathered bliss, and ivory arms are clasped in fervent fondness, and rosy lips open with murmurs of ineffable affection and love.

Few stars dare peep out amid the radiance of her immediate neighborhood, and even those that have the courage, seem, in their dimness, but pearls dropped from her shining robes.

Farther away, however, the stellar sentinels still keep their vigils undismayed. The hoary Wagoner still treads his weary round, and the glittering cynosure of the skies, still gleaming, lures the surly Bear along the circle which his reluctant feet have for ages trod.

It is certainly well that the Little Bear does not feel the influence of the queen regnant, for if he should happen to frisk that tail of his, what would become of our North Star.

But, ah! I see that Madame has finished her visit. She has got tired of tampering with Apollo's dreams, or else, which is quite likely, the chap has waked up, in which case she had better leave.—Gently she glides upward along the declivity of the heavens, and the silvery sheen of the celestial flowers, on which she moves, can just be seen, tinged with a faint blush which is, yes, it must be, from the roses strewn in her pathway by the nymphs of the upper air.

But a radiance more dazzling, a majesty more imposing than yours, fair Queen of Love, is coming up the slopes, beyond yon watery horizon. See! the stars are all trembling, paling and dying at the very anticipation of that coming presence which is yet afar off. The very air is putting on court robes of white and blue, while the few gossamer clouds that have peeped over the horizon and caught a glimpse of that glory, are arching the gates of the East with banners of crimson, and purple, and gold.

Ah! Madame Venus! you have fired your dreamer with a passion that you may well flee from. Put wings to your buskins, fair maid, for the steeds of Hyperion are swift, and his glowing chariot wheels hasten over the hyaline pavement of the skies.

Never did girl caught in a shower gather up her skirts and scamper as did our goddess now, and when the Sun god reined his panting coursers fairly upon the track of Day, she was quite out of sight, except to a straining vision, which might detect a faint something, far away in the vista of the empyrean, which indicates her whereabouts.

I don't believe that the fiery fellow caught her at all, for to-day at noon, I saw groups in the street trying to direct each other's sight to a dim point of light visible in advance of the sun, and which I knew must be a ray that still reached the earth from the glittering vesture of the frightened and fleeing Queen of Love.

RASSELAS.

What's in a Name.—We can excuse blunders. Mistakes occur in the best regulated, &c., &c., and types play the deuce with fame—but we never thought the well-know "H. O.," who presides with such dignity and grace at the "Union Office," would appear in print as "H. O. Nelson," and yet our enterprising but limited cotemporary the Enquirer, so addresses him.

This is almost as bad as an article which recently appeared in a Chicago paper, on capital punishment, in which our friend Bovee, of Eagle, figured conspicuously—but every time as Mr. "Bones."

Relief Fund.—The undersigned would acknowledge the receipt of the following contributions to the fund for the relief of the sufferers by the loss of the Lady Elgin. $131.68, through the hands of Bishop Henni, being the proceeds of a sacred concert given in the Cathedral of the Holy Name, at Chicago. $210 from Mayor Lynde; $160 of which was from the citizens of Kenosha, and $50, from Messrs Hale & Ayer, of Chicago. Also $5, from F. B. Lathrop, of Oswego, N. Y.

Sept. 25, 1860.

The N. Y. Evening Post says that the matchless speech delivered by Carl Schurz at the Cooper Institute was written on a Lake Erie steamboat, during a day's detention at Detroit by a storm.

Resolutions.—At a meeting of the Board of School Commissioners held Monday evening, Sept. 24, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:

Whereas, One of the most worthy and most competent teachers of this city, Mr. Cornelius O'Mahoney, was lost in the fatal disaster of the Lady Elgin, and in view of the uniformly quiet and excellent character which that gentleman has ever maintained in his relations to the School Board of this city, therefore,

Resolved, That we most sincerely sorrow for the loss which we have suffered in being thus suddenly deprived of one of our teachers; and that we can bear our unanimous testimony to the exalted moral character which Mr. O'Mahoney has ever sustained since he has become known to this Board.

Resolved, That this Board deeply sympathises with the friends of Mr. O'Mahoney in this their sad affliction, and would earnestly commend them to the care and kind Providence of Him, whose ways are past finding out, but who ever "doeth all things well."

The Search for the Dead.—We learn that at the instance of his Honor, Mayor Lynde, the tug Netter left this city yesterday morning to search for bodies. She was to have returned last evening.

Wall has a sale of dry goods, boots and shoes, furniture, peaches, &c., this morning, at 10 o'clock, at his auction room, corner of Wisconsin and Spring streets.

VINEGAR! VINEGAR!

THE MANUFACTURE OF VINEGAR. Its Theory and Practice, with especial reference to the quick process: by Charles M. Wetherill. A great part of the contents of this work may be found scattered over the several treatises of pure and applied chemistry; but on the other hand, there is no concise, reliable American work accessible to the inexperienced, or practical vinegar manufacturer, in which he can find what information is needful for carrying out his process to the best advantage.

Vinegar making will continue to be an extensive and widely-diffused manufacture, and its importance will increase as our country becomes more widely occupied. This fact is self-evident, since a large portion of the freight upon each barrel of vinegar is paid upon the universally-to-be-had water.

Republican Rally at Waupun.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WAUPUN, Sept. 24, 1860.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—We had one of our usual Republican rallies here last Saturday evening, to listen to an address by the Hon. A. B. JACKSON, of Appleton. Dodge's Hall was crowded to its fullest extent. The Wide-Awakes turned out in excellent style.

If the little man who, at present, misrepresents this district in Congress, was possessed of an ordinary amount of sagacity, he might comprehend with what determination the people are at work digging his political grave, from the enthusiasm manifested at the Republican gatherings throughout the district in favor of Judge SLOAN.

LARRABEE was advertised to speak at this place a few days ago. He came—but not the audience; so the speaking was indefinitely postponed.

The way Mr. JACKSON handles modern Democracy reminds me of the old man who had the boy in an apple tree. And the way he shows up the inconsistencies of the little LARRABEE, from his earliest political career in this State, when he was a member with him in the Convention that framed our State Constitution, when LARRABEE voted with Mr. JACKSON to strike out the word white in the suffrage clause of the Constitution, down through his Congressional career; showing up his Know-Nothingism and his anti-Know-Nothingism; his Black Republicanism and his dirt-eating Democracy. His description of him as he has appeared in the character of pig and puppy, was not only amusing, but so life-like and so true that none of those present could prevent a feeling of shame from creeping over them at the thought of being represented in Congress by such a specimen of a political weathercock. Thank God, his lease will soon expire, and the people of this district will take good care that it is not renewed.

I would advise LARRABEE to keep a proper distance away from old JACKSON. He knows more about him than he would like to hear in public.

Our meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for LINCOLN, HAMLIN, and SLOAN.

Yours, C.

A WISCONSIN LADY LECTURING.—Miss WHEELER, of Oshkosh, lectured at Washington Hall in that city, on Friday evening of last week, to a crowded house. Her subject was "The Presidential candidates—Douglas and Lincoln." Her discourse is said to have been able and interesting, consisting of comparisons of their respective intellectual qualifications—personal and biographical sketches, and "a summary of political opinions and doctrines of which they are the exponents and champions."

PENNSYLVANIA is all excitement. Her people are aroused to a complete political awakening. Great Republican mass meetings, attended by from 30,000 to 50,000 people, have got to be weekly, and almost daily occurrences. In Lancaster, the other day, there was an immense gathering of the friends of LINCOLN. Everything from the Keystone State indicates an overwhelming enthusiasm in favor of Freedom.

STEALING ON A LARGE SCALE.—The whole amount of public funds belonging to the State of Illinois, now missing, but which have been traced to the hands of the late Democratic Governor of that State, Joel A. MATTESON, is $428,960. MATTESON is now using a large per centage of his ill-gotten gains, it is said, to carry Illinois for Douglas, and to elect a democratic Legislature.

STATE FAIR.—Five hundred and sixty-six entries had been made upon the books of the State Fair up to Monday.

THEY HAD A snow storm in Waukesha County last week, so says a correspondent writing from Eagle.

Joe Lane and the Oregon Indian Wars.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—I am in the daily receipt of letters from the several political parties of the day, asking information as to the facts connected with the origin of the Indian wars of 1855 and 1856 in Oregon, and what part, if any, JOE LANE had in causing those wars.

I will as briefly as possible state the facts, which will enable my correspondents, as well as the people generally, to judge for themselves.

I was appointed Superintendent of Indian affairs for Oregon, under an act of Congress, passed June 5th, 1850, which act also provided for the appointment of three Commissioners to treat with the Indian tribes, living west of the Cascade Mountains in Oregon, for the cession of their lands to the United States; JOHN P. GAINES, of Ky., BEVERLY S. ALLEN, of Tenn., and ALONZO A. SKINNER, of Oregon, were appointed such Commissioners.

In the Spring of 1851, these Commissioners negotiated six treaties with the Indians, which ceded to the United States all of that part of the Willamette Valley lying south of Oregon City, or, down to within six miles of it. There was a subsequent act passed February 27th, 1851, which abrogated the commission system, and turned their labors over to the Indian Department. Under this last act, I was instructed to continue the negotiations with the Indians, and to take for my guide the instructions given to the Commissioners. Those instructions contemplated the removal of the Indians from the west to the east side of the Cascade Mountains, provided they were willing to move, and also provided the tribes living east of the mountains, were willing to receive them.—The Commissioners had informed me that not one tribe or band treated with, would consent to be removed from the lands or country where their forefathers were buried, and they would rather be killed and buried there with their fathers, than be removed.

Before I commenced the treaty negotiations, in order to fully test this question of removal, I notified all the Indian tribes living in Eastern Oregon, to send their head men or Chiefs to meet me at the Dally of the Columbia, on the 6th of June, 1851. Delegations from every tribe in the upper country, met me as requested, excepting the Yakimas and Cayuses. The object of the meeting seemed to be well understood by the Indians; they said they were anxious to live in peace, and on friendly terms with the "Borteres," (white people;) but that they never would peaceably submit to have sent amongst them, the disordered and sickly tribes living west of the mountains. I sent for the Kakimas, as they owned a very extensive country on the north side of the Columbia river; but they declined to come. On the second day of this large gathering, (there being not less than five hundred Indians present,) I promised them that the Government would not send any of the lower country tribes among them. This promise was received with many demonstrations of lasting friendship.

After visiting many of the large tribes in the upper country, (or east of the Cascade Mountains,) at their own homes,—all appeared very friendly, and none more so than the Cayuses.

After an absence of six weeks, I returned to the Dally; there I met several of the Chiefs and head men of the Yakimas, who expressed great joy on learning that I had promised the Indians "at the great council," that their country was not to be occupied by any of the Western tribes.

I here allude to the tribe, for the purpose of explaining why the first hostile demonstrations, early in October, 1855, were made by them. They were the first Indians in the upper country that were notified by their neighbors, the Klikitats, that the promises to the Indians of the Willamette valley in regard to their non-removal, were not to be complied with by the Government; hence the reason that they, with the Klikitats, struck the first blow. In my first effort to negotiate treaties with the Indian tribes, as provided by law, it was evident to me that it would be impossible to maintain peaceful relations with them without allowing small reservations, so that they could remain in the land of their forefathers; nor did there appear any good reason why they should not remain. The tribes and bands were all small, and perfectly friendly to the whites, and always had been. All were located in and about the white settlements,—willing to work, and their labor was quite indispensible to the white settlers. They were in the habit of doing a large portion of the farm labor of the country, all the boating on the rivers, and could be hired for about one half the cost of white labor. It will be remembered that this was about the time of the great excitement in California, and extreme prices ruled for every thing.

I commenced these negociations late in August, 1851, and made thirteen treaties before the close of the dry season of that year. These thirteen treaties extinguished the Indian title to the lands in the Willamette valley, from about six miles south of Oregon City to the Columbia river, and on both sides of that river to the Pacific Ocean. On these lands are located Oregon City, Lynn City, Milwaukee, Portland, Vancouver and Astoria, besides several small towns on the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

I also treated with the Indians at Port Oxford, in Southern Oregon, for the country extending to a few miles north of that place. Not an acre of land was negotiated for by me, on the coast excepting Clatsop Plains and what was known as the Tillamook county adjoining; making altogether but a small patch just south of the mouth of the Columbia; leaving over two hundred miles of the Columbia, leaving over two hundred miles of the Oregon coast south of Columbia river now treated for. I carried these thirteen treaties on to Washington near the close of 1851, informed President FILLMORE, and also the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that it would be impossible to maintain peaceful relations with the Indian tribes of Oregon, unless the conditions and stipulation of these treaties were faithfully carried out by the Government. That the rejection of them, with the view of removing the Indians from their homes on the small reservations provided for them in the treaties, would surely produce a resistance on the part of the Indians that would embroil the whole country on the coast in a man. The President was in favor of the ratification, and so was the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and every Senator that I had an opportunity of consulting on the subject favored their ratification.

Having shown that solemn treaties had been concluded with various Indian tribes of Oregon, it is now important that the people of the United States should know who was mainly instrumental in bringing on the disastrous wars in Oregon that have already cost government several millions of dollars, besides unpaid claims amounting to six millions more! I have stated that treaties were made, and that peace reigned in the country. I now state that they were rejected in the Senate, and to conclude, I will quote from public record.

During the debate in the Senate June 13, on the bill for the relief of ANSON DART, Mr. LANE said, as quoted from the Congressional Globe:

"I said yesterday that not one of the treaties made by this man were ratified. They were of no consequence. They never ought to have been made. He made treaties with Indians living along the coast—small bands —mere fragments what had been great tribes. At the time he made the treaties, there were very few there. As I said on a former occasion, many of those tribes with whom he made treaties to purchase their lands, have passed away. They have become extinct. I notified the Senator of it then, and advised him not to incur a debt on the Treasury; that the Indians would hardly live to see the treaties ratified. They were never ratified, and never ought to have been."

Again, in the Globe of June 16, 1860:

Mr. LANE.—"Why did you not ratify them?"

Mr. Sebastian.—"I beg the Senator's pardon, I recommended to the Senate that those treaties should be rejected, upon his advice, and upon that of no other person. He was the delegate from that Territory. I could credit the representations of no other one, and that is the reason why, as I say, &c."

I next quote from the unanimous report of the committee on Indian Affairs, of the Senate, made to that body on the 8th of June, 1860, through Judge SEBASTIAN, the Chairman:

"It is too late now to enquire what would have been the result of the ratification of these treaties negotiated by him, for they were rejected by the Senate. It is but just to him to say, however, that he urged their ratification at the time, as a measure of sound public policy, and to prevent Indian hostilities. They were rejected, and Indian hostilities ensued, which have cost many lives and several million of dollars."

ANSON DART,
Late Sup't Indian Affairs, Oregon.

NOTE:—As the disastrous wars did not take place until 1855, it may be asked what connection the treaties named had with these troubles, and will here say that it was not known to the Indians that the stipulations contained in the treaties were not to be carried out by the government until late in 1853, and no steps were taken to remove them until 1854.

It will also be observed that Lane's statement in debate, that I made treaties for lands on the coast only, is without any truth whatever.

RECIPROCAL POLE RAISING.—The Wood County Reporter tells how they fraternise in the political work in that county:

"On Saturday last, the Democrats and Republicans assembled to raise a Douglas pole, and when it was raised to an angle of about twenty degrees, it broke at the splice. All regretted it, but at the suggestion of some insane politician, three rousing cheers were given for Lincoln. Cheers were then given for Douglas and Johnson.

"On the following Wednesday, the Republicans were prepared to raise their pole. Ten days work were expended to obtain, hew and plane it. At considerable expense, a flag forty feet long, with streamers attached twenty-seven feet long, was gotten up by the ladies. A 'spread eagle' ten feet from tip to tip, and five feet high, with stars and shield, was a prominent attraction of the flag. Printed by Cowen & Eastman. The Republicans, too, had the misfortune to break their pole; but nothing daunted, they procured a 'smaller edition,' and set 'er up amid deafening cheers. Messrs. H. G. Webb, O. Garrison, Jos. Wood and J. H. Compton were called out, and responded briefly.

"By these rejoicings we hope our distant friends will not mistrust that the Lincoln and Douglas man have fused. The Republicans are only encouraging Douglas to keep him from withdrawing as a candidate.

"We learn that a new Douglas pole will be raised to day."

A FARMERS' CLUB has been organized at Fox Lake, and one has been in operation at Waupun for some time. They seem to give satisfaction so far, and are so carried on that something will be accomplished which shall prove a benefit to those engaged.

MR. ISRAEL SMITH, of Middleton, Dane County, raised 2,744 bushels of wheat this year, on 95 acres of ground. This is a specimen of Wisconsin farming.

RELIEF MEETING AT WEST BEND, WASHINGTON CO.—In pursuance to public notice, the citizens of West Bend met at the Hall of A. Vieth, on the 15th of Sept., at 5 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to furnish some relief and aid to the sufferers of the Lady Elgin disaster.

The meeting was called to order by C. H. Miller, Esq., whereupon Dr. G. Arzbacher was elected President, A. Semler, Secretary, and S. Mayer, Treasurer.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint a committee of seven, who shall circulate subscription papers, receive monies and publish a call inviting the several towns of this county to collect funds for the same object, and forward the same either to this Committee, or to the Aid Society of Milwaukee.

The President appointed the following gentlemen as such Committee:

F. O. Thorp, L. F. Frisby, Stephen Mayer, Prof. Regenfass, G. H. Kleffler, Michael Bohan and John Burkhardt.

On motion it was

Resolved, That that the said Committee and Treasurer make a public report of their doings as often as convenient.

Resolved, That the Milwaukee papers and the Washington County Democrat be requested to publish the proceedings of this and subsequent meetings.

Dr. G. ARZBACHER, Pres't.

ALBERT SEMLER, Sec'y.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN DANE COUNTY.—Saturday evening, just at dark, the body of a man was found beside the road, in Sugar Bush. He was quite dead, and the appearances indicated that his team had run away with him, had struck the wagon against a tree, and he had been thrown out and killed. Parts of the wagon were found there, and a part was found attached to one of the horses, some distance off. Some sash that he had in his wagon was strewn about.

The body was brought to the city, but, up to yesterday forenoon, had not been identified. Detective Welch recollected having seen the same man about the city, in a state of intoxication during the afternoon. He had evidently brought a load of wheat to the city, and some empty bags in the wagon were marked "W. W. Bradley." He was a smallish man, about 40 years old, had whiskers about his cheek and neck, had on "body shirt," and a "Lickory" shirt under it; had no vest, his pantaloons were considerably patched. He wore no coat, but one on the seat was a brownish color.

His remains were at the Court House Saturday night.

There is a Mr. Bradley living in Springfield, but his road home would have been by Pheasant Branch, and not by Sugar Bush. The body will doubtless be identified during the day.—Madison Argus.

THE STORM AT NEW ORLEANS—NOBLE ACT OF A FRENCH SAILOR.—The terrible equinoctial gale felt at New Orleans on Saturday, had dreadful effect upon the town of Milenburg, Lake Pontchartrain; the waves broke up the wharves, and destroyed a great many small crafts. One schooner was badly staved by running against the wharf. The streets were flooded, and the railroad track was covered with water for some distance. A fishing boat with a young lad aboard, was capsized at some two hundred yards distance from the shore. Four men jumped into a boat and went to the rescue of the lad. One of them, a Frenchman, named Henry LeBrouton, jumped overboard, and catching hold of the lad, had him safely transferred to the boat; but a huge wave swept off the frail craft, and he could not get on board. He held on to the keel of the capsized boat, and cried out to the men to take the lad ashore and come back for him. They obeyed, but return was impossible, and their boat and three others that attempted to go to the rescue, were alternately swamped. The poor fellow held on to the keel for two hours, and was finally washed away, perfectly exhausted. His generosity cost him his life.—N. O. Courier.

ACCIDENT AT THE STATE FAIR.—Yesterday afternoon some children got over the State Fair Ground fence and got into a revolving swing. It was not ready for swinging, and the consequence was that the car part fell to the ground, injuring several children near, and some who were in it. Mary Kelly and Mary Burke were much hurt, and we hear that one of them has since died. Boland, a little boy, had his arm broken, and Neagle, another boy, was injured in the back by a screw entering it.—Madison Patriot of Monday.

PARDONED.—Harvey Fairchild, who was last year convicted, sentenced, and sent to the State Prison, at Waupun, for seven years, for his complicity in the killing of Carhart, has been pardoned by Gov. Randall, and he has again made his appearance at home, where it is hoped he will happily remain, and never again be compelled to leave it for such a cause, or a much less offensive one, as banished him from friends into the society of the criminals under charge of the State.—Grant Co. Witness.

Bryan's Tasteless Vermifuge.

SAVED! SAVED!

Physicians in vain came again and again,
The dear little angel grew worse,
"'Tis a fatal disease, and we can't give her ease,"
Said the doctors to mother and nurse.
But the nurse in plain terms said, "'tis nothing but worms,"
And a cure pointed out right away;
BRYAN'S VERMIFUGE mild, then they gave to the child,
And behold! she was well the next day.

Put up in bottles. Price 2½ dimes. Sold by Henry Fess, Jr., and by druggists. sept19d1m

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

Pimples on the Face and Skin Diseases

ARE GENERALLY CAUSED BY ANIMALCULÆ burrowing in the skin. Dr. Trask's Magnetic Ointment, by its powerful and penetrating qualities, destroys every vestige of them, restoring health and beauty to the skin wherever applied, removing Tan and Freckles.

Inflamed or Sore Eyes.

A. O. Cushing, of South Bend, Ind., says: "The Magnetic Ointment is the only remedy in use here for INFLAMED EYES. The Auditor of our county has so much faith in its curative powers in this disease, that he not only highly recommends it, but offers to forfeit the amount paid for it in each case, if it fails of a cure."

Piles.

Piles which are at this season of the year particularly troublesome, are cured at once by Trask's Magnetic Ointment; apply to the parts affected and small of the back.

Nervous or Sick Headache.

Apply the Ointment freely to the forehead and temples and back of the neck, also to the soles of the feet and palms of the hands. It will relieve the severest headache in thirty minutes.

☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. jy13s19dawsow3m

Dr. Jas. McClintock's Asthma Remedy.

THERE IS NO DISEASE MORE DISTRESSING than Asthma. It "murders sleep" and induces a fear of death by suffocation, that is perfectly horrible. Now, here is a specific which forthwith removes the most painful symptoms, which always in the end effects a cure. Not to resort to it is madness. For whooping cough it is also infallible.

LINES.

Inscribed to the memory of the lost in the wreck of the "Lady Elgin."

BY FANNY BACHELDER.

They swept away o'er the rolling wave,
With joyous hearts, and notes of song;
But little they dreamed they were bound to the grave
As the swift ship hurried them on.
Our loved ones were there in that doomed band;
Parents and children, friends most dear;
And lovers were there, hand clasped in hand,
But they deemed not their bridal day so near.
O give them back, thou treacherous wave,
Those true hearts back from the dark, cold grave!

On our lips still burned their parting kiss,
In our ears still rang their notes of glee;
As with hearts overflowing with exquisite bliss,
They swept away o'er the foaming sea.
But the death stroke fell in the midnight dark,
When none could pity and none could save;
Hung trembling awhile their shattered bark
Then sank like a stone in the angry wave.
But give them back, thou treacherous wave,
Our loved ones back from the dark, cold grave.

There manhood went down in its glorious might,
And youth in its beauty and bloom,
And infancy smiled like an angel of light,
As helpless it sank to the dreary tomb.
With the daybeam rose the storm in its might,
The raging waves leaped fierce and high.
They perished! they perished! Oh God! in our sight!
And our bosoms were rent by their dying cry.
O give them back, thou treacherous wave,
Our loved ones back from the dark, cold grave.

Mangled and bleeding, crushed and torn,
They are hurled to our feet by the cruel sea.
Are these those forms so fair last morn?
O mercy forbid! It cannot be!
All desolate now are our once glad homes,
The voices are hushed that charmed our ear,
With twilight returning no longer comes
The footstep light that we loved to hear.
Then give, O give, thou treacherous wave,
Our loved ones back from the dark, cold grave!

There's a desolate hearth, and an empty chair;
A strain from the music is gone;
A weight on our hearts that we scarce can bear,
As we sit in bitterness down to mourn.
Our bosoms are bleeding, our souls are rent!
With a deep and torturing pain.
We have mourned and wept till tears are spent,
And still our loved come not again.
O why dost thou hold, thou treacherous wave,
Our loved ones still in the dark, cold grave!

Hark! a voice is heard from the sounding sea:
Soft on the air its echoes rise,
"Mourners, your friends are not with me,
They are waiting for you beyond the skies.
Onward and on my waves must roll,
Till heaven and earth dissolve in fire,
But never, no never my depths can hold
A spirit thrilled with immortal fire.
Then ask ye not your loved from me,
For they slumber not in the restless sea."

But a melody soft from the blue dome rings,
A sweet, rich, gushing strain,
Like the thrilling song which the seraph sings,
Like magic it soothes our hearts deep pain.
"Brothers and sisters no longer mourn
For us as lost in the tossing deep;
We have passed beyond that blissful bourne,
To a land where tempests never sweep.
And here forever in vigor and bloom,
In beauty immortally bright,
Beyond the wave and beyond the tomb,
We revel in gardens of endless delight.
And here on our Savior's bosom reclined,
We are waiting the loved ones we left behind."

PEORIA, ILL., Sept. 16th, 1860.

The Lake Michigan Disaster.

From "The World."

Our Chicago exchanges have been giving reports of the testimony taken at the coroner's inquest upon the bodies of those lost in the late disaster to the Lady Elgin on Lake Michigan. Comment upon that sad event would have been premature and without practical result before the testimony of the survivors had enabled us to point out its cause. Who that has read the thrilling stories of the few saved, or seen in imagination, as we all have seen, the waves of the lake, in that dark night, crested with struggling, drowning forms, but has throbbed with pity. It is all we can offer, even to those who have passed beyond its reach; and our sympathy for those who mourn is alike unavailing. But it behooves us, because pity is vain, and grief remediless, to see to it that so far as human provision can go, the like shall never occur again.

It appears from the testimony now rendered that the men on the schooner saw the steamer's lights in time to have avoided the collision—one testifies that he saw them twenty minutes before they met, but he did not put up her helm, nor call the captain till ten minutes later. All on board of the schooner bear testimony to the unwillingness of their vessel to obey the helm, a knowledge of which should have led them earlier to change their course. Culpable negligence on the part of the look-out and the man at the helm was one cause of the Lake Michigan disaster.

But if the schooner had exhibited a bright light it might have been in the power of the steamer to have avoided collision. If we would, therefore, do all that is possible to us to make such a destruction of property and such a terrible loss of life less frequent hereafter, there should be a law establishing a thorough and uniform system of lights on sailing vessels. There are tempests, and fogs, and icebergs, and lee shores holding a fate which no forecast can avert, but collisions rarely are inevitable. Last year there were reported the total losses of twenty-seven vessels, which, with their cargoes, were valued at $185,652. This is by no means a complete list of the collisions; but if such a one could be gathered, the figures would run up nearer those of the preceding year when there were one hundred and twenty collisions reported, entailing a loss of over one million of dollars, and several hundred lives. Nine-tenths of these disasters occurred for want of a proper light, some by reason of the lack of any light.

Both upon our inland waters and upon the sea, the captains and owners of small vessels should be compelled by law to show a light of some specified intensity, sufficient at least to be visible in ordinary weather at a distance of two miles.

Steamers now rarely collide, and for the reason that they have a regular system of lights—one bright white light at the mast-head, a green light on the starboard-bow, and a red light on the port-bow. The law for sailing vessels should be no less careful and compulsory, preventing the possibility of such disasters as one sees imminent not far from our own harbor, where, after the prevalence of a northerly wind, there is often a fleet of coasters, numbering sometimes nearly two hundred sail, coming along the coast in the track of all the Southern steamers, and not one-tenth of them having a light set in the darkest night.

But laws are farces—sometimes with a tragic ending, if not enforced. There are pasted in conspicuous places on board of the steamers, certificates of their seaworthiness; that they carry a certain number of boats in good order, capable of holding such a number of persons; that they carry so many feet of hose, and have such and such water-tight compartments, so many life preservers, &c., &c. In spite of these paper precautions, all travelers know that many vessels pass inspection whose boats are laid up on deck, rotten or corroded, or so inaccessible that before they could be launched the boat might sink twice, whose hose is bound with rags from butt to butt, through whose bulkheads one might pass biscuits with no difficulty, and whose life-preservers are as buoyant as so many paving-stones.

When a repeal of the death penalty is oppose, we hear a great deal about the value and sacredness of human life. Let these reformers look about them at night and morning; when, with other hundreds and thousands they are crossing the North and East rivers, and see how miserably inadequate on all the ferry-boats are the means of saving human lives in case of accident or disaster.

It is but a few years since an accident occurred on one of the Brooklyn ferry-boats, which must have flashed upon those who saw it, all the terrible possibilities of even that brief transit. But is not the same accident possible in the next fog? If we are heedless of the warnings of this Lake Michigan wreck, some morning may dawn on many a New York home as desolate as those of Milwaukee.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR
FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumber and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE:

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

Sherry Wine Bitters!

The Celebrated New England Remedy
FOR HABITUAL CONSTIPATION.

JAUNDICE, FEVER AND AGUE, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM A DISORDERED STOMACH, LIVER, OR BOWELS.

IT IS A MEDICINAL TONIC THAT most persons require during the summer season. Try its virtues all you who are debilitated and require medicinal aid.

The following is from the best authority. Mr. Stanford is a merchant, well known, and now, to see him, you would behold a man the picture of health.

BLOUNTSVILLE, Henry Co., Ind., May 4, 1860.

MESSRS. J. M. HARRIS & Co., Cincinnati, O.

Gents,—Your Agent visited me to-day, and proposed leaving me a supply of your Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters on sale. I hailed them as an old and valued friend, for such they proved to me. After hearing a statement of my case, and experience with the bitters, you will not think me enthusiastic when I say that I attribute my present good health, even life itself, to the merits of your truly invaluable medicine. Some three years since I was attacked with great nervous debility, which was soon followed by palpitation of the heart, of the most severe and prostrating character. At the expiration of six months I was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was satisfied if relief did not soon come I must pass away. Two physicians attended me a good portion of the time, but their efforts to afford relief were of no avail. Finally one of them suggested a trial of the "Sherry Wine Bitters," and to my great satisfaction, their effects upon me were most beneficial from the start. After using about a dozen bottles I was completely restored, and am now in robust health. You may expect good sales of me, as I can recommend them on their merits.

You are at liberty to make use of this statement as may best suit you; as I give it freely, and with a hope that others may be induced to try it who are suffering as I was. With all respect, I remain,

Yours truly,
THOMAS STANFORD.

PERRY DAVIS'

VEGETABLE

PAIN KILLER.

WE ASK THE ATTENTION OF THE trade to this long tested and unrivaled

FAMILY MEDICINE.

It has been favorably known for more than twenty years, to be the

ONLY SURE SPECIFIC

For many diseases incident to the human family.

Internally and Externally

It works equally sure.

What stronger proof of these facts can be produced than the following letter received unsolicited from A. W. Curtis.

ROMEO, Macomb Co., Mich., July 9, 1860.

MESSRS. J. N. HARRIS & Co.

Gentlemen:—The confidence I have in Perry Davis' Pain Killer as a remedy for Colds, Coughs, Burns, Sprains and Rheumatism, for the cure of which I have successfully used it, induces me to cheerfully recommend its virtues to others.

A few months ago I had recourse to it to destroy a felon; although I had never heard of its being used for that purpose, but having suffered intensely from a former one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pain Killer freely for about fifteen minutes at evening, and repeated the application very briefly the next morning, which entirely destroyed the felon, and increased my confidence in the utility of the remedy. Yours truly,

A. W. CURTIS,
Minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

THE PAIN KILLER

Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler—on sea and land—and no one should travel on our lakes or rivers without it.

Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lyerville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlets are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Mosse, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. F. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. D. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 6, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

IS NOW READY.

☞ The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.

MOFFAT'S

Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters!

THESE MEDICINES HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of THIRTY YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the Globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES

Are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder: they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these Medicines, was cured of Piles of 35 years standing by the use of the LIFE MEDICINES alone.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the western country, these Medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure of these Medicines is permanent—TRY THEM, BE SATISFIED AND BE CURED.

BILIOUS FEVERS AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description: King's Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Colic, are speedily cured.

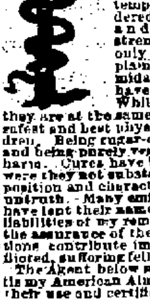
Ayer's Cathartic Pills.



THE SCIENCES OF CHEMISTRY and Medicine have been taxed to their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organ into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them and they should have it.

British Harvest Prospects.

We publish, at the request of several merchants of our city, the following article from a recent number of the London Times, cut from a New York paper of the 18th inst:

The weather has not materially damaged the harvest. That condition, which two experienced correspondents have announced in our pages, seems now confirmed by the daily reports from the country and the unerring indications of the markets. It has even said that the wheat crop will be as good as that of 1859, and, although other authorities have predicted a certain deficiency, it is agreed on all hands that the failure will be nothing like was anticipated, and that a fortnight's fair weather at this juncture will see us well through the crisis. Already, indeed, in some parts of the country there has been a good week of sunshine, and many an acre's crop must have been securely housed.

When we turn for an explanation of this apparent anomaly, we are not long in obtaining it. Although the rain was excessive it has not been often continuous,—every third or fourth day brought a little respite; and the showers, too, though almost tropical in violence, were very partial in extent.—One parish was often dry, while another, five miles off, was drenched. This gave the crops time to recover themselves, and the opportunities were providentially furnished just when they were most urgently needed. When the wet first set in it was very timely, and the land was all the better for it.—When the short burst of fine weather followed in July, the wheat was just blossoming, and that critical process was favored by an unusually brilliant month. Then came the rain again, but not without such glimpses of sunshine as permitted the crops to ripen; and now, just as they are ripe, we are blessed with a return of such weather as will enable us, we trust, to get them safely in. It is asserted, indeed, that if this year's harvest can only be well secured, it will be of particularly good quality. The ears are said to be full, and the grain heavy—unshriveled by excess of heat, and not ripened before its time.

This is a pleasing prospect after our late alarms, and it may be contemplated, we think, with some confidence, although, of course, much is yet to be done before the harvest will be actually safe. But, even if the failure of our crops had been as serious as was anticipated, the means of supplying our deficiencies were most abundant. In the great corn producing countries of the world, the harvest has been excellent,—in America rich and beyond example. It is curious to read that in the United States the complaint, if any, has been of drouth; but, though want of rain has rather injured the agriculturalists of Missouri and Kansas, the Northwestern States have been astonishingly productive. Although the American crop of 1860 is said to exceed by 29,000,000 bushels that of 1859, and by 70,000,000 that of 1858, while the number of bushels available for exportation or store, after the home demand has been satisfied, is computed to be 74,000,000. In France there is probably no surplus produce, though the harvest, upon the whole, has been better than was expected; in Spain the crops have been heavy; in Russia and the Baltic provinces generally good.

We need not say how much must still depend on a continuance of the fine weather which we have enjoyed for the last few days. We may already, it is true, assure ourselves that the harvest will not be so bad as we feared, but in some districts it has hardly yet commenced, although in others it is all but completed. What is instructive in the case is the evidence thus given of the visitations which the wheat crop can sustain with impunity, or, perhaps, we should rather say, of the blessings with which man may regard the operations of Providence. We thought that the corn must be germinating under the excessive wet, whereas we are now told that it is actually safer in this respect than it was last year. All this while, too, the weather was really extraordinary. The popular opinion on this point was no delusion. There was little sun, little warmth, a perfect tempest of winds, and a deluge of rain; yet the corn grew in its season. It covers our fields at this moment with an average harvest, and as we look at these kindly fruits of the earth which have been produced for our support, we have only to pray that in due time we may be enabled to enjoy them.

Another Body Found

MUSKEGON, Mich., Sept. 20th, 1860.

Editors Press & Tribune:

The schooner Speed, Capt. Young, came in this morning, bringing a corpse, supposed to be one of the lost of the Lady Elgin. It was picked up 35 miles from this shore.—It was the body of a man about 19 or 20 years of age, with black hair, black eyes, full round face, no beard, and about 5 ft. 7 in. in height. He no doubt belonged to a military company, having on blue pants, striped at the sides, Congress gaiters, check vest and white shirt. On the little finger of the right hand he wore a black ring, and a plain gold one. In one pocket was found a black oval tobacco box and 13 cents in silver. An inquest is being held, after which he will be buried immediately.

The receipts of wheat to-day, it will be seen, are 76,450 bus—an increase of a few thousand bushels over the amount reported yesterday. The market opened very dull, and, in order to effect sales, early in the day a concession of 1c had to be made on the part of holders, but towards noon shippers bought freely at yesterday's prices, and before the close of 'Change an advance of ½c took place on No. 1 spring, which was followed by another advance of ½c in the afternoon. Sales of about 70,000 bus were reported at 89@91c for No. 1 in store; 87@88c for No. 2, 92@93c for Club, 94@95c for Extra, and $1,02@1,05 for white winter. The market closed firmly at the outside figures for No. 1 and No. 2. The sales include a cargo of No. 1 on private terms.

Flour was extremely heavy, buyers not disposed to go outside of $4,50 for the best country brands. About 1,000 bbls were reported at $4 for superfine; 4,50@4,75 for good to choice country Extra, and $5 for fancy City.

Coarse grains quiet, with light receipts. Barley was a shade higher, good No. 1 bringing 60c.

Freights were very dull. The schooners Middlesex and Rocket were chartered at 13c for wheat to Buffalo, but shippers were generally holding off for lower rates. The rates at Chicago to-day were 12½c.

CHICAGO MARKET, SEPTEMBER 24TH.

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of wheat to-day were 99,245 bus. The market was very quiet, and under the influence of dull news from the East, as well as an advance in freights, prices show a decline of 1@1½c ₽ bushel. The sales were unusually light, at 85c for Northwestern Club; 85½@87c for No. 1 Spring; 83½@84c for No. 2 Spring; and 75c for Rejected—the market at the close being quiet at 83c for No. 2 and 86c for No. 1 Spring. Corn was in less demand, and owing to the decline in Liverpool, prices were about 1c lower.—About 35,000 bus were sold at 40½c for No. 2 Canal afloat; 38½@39½c for No. 1; and 37½c for No. 2.—Oats were less inquired for and the market ruled ½@1c lower—sales ranging from 19 to 20c in store. Rye was quiet at 51c for No. 1 afloat. Barley steady, with a fair local demand at 45@48c, according to sample. Timothy Seed was firm—sales being made at $2,10@2,20. Flax Seed in good demand and more active at $1,12½@1,25. High wines were dull and ½c lower—city wines selling at 20½c. Hides steady. A lot of 120 lbs summer rendered lard was sold to-day for shipment to Boston at 11½c; and 5 hogsheads bacon sides were taken for shipment down the Mississippi at 11½.

Freights advanced ½@1c to-day; but in the afternoon the upward tendency was somewhat checked by a favorable wind for the upward-bound fleet. The rates for sail vessels to-day were: To Buffalo, 12c for corn; 12½@13c for wheat; to Kingston, 17c for wheat; to Oswego, 15½c for corn; and to Sarnia, 8c for wheat.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

At Baltimore on Friday 1,000 bags coffee sold at 14½c. The sales for the week were 18,000 bags at ¼c advance, closing at 13¾@14¾. Flour declined, with sales of 700 bbls at $5,50 for superfine, and $6 for extra. Very little doing in provisions; bacon declined ¼c. Ohio whiskey nominal at 22¾@23c.

CINCINNATI MARKET.

In referring to Friday's market the Cincinnati Gazette says:

There was a decidedly improved feeling in the flour market to-day, with sales of 3,000 bbls at $5 for superfine, on the spot. Included in the sales was a lot of 500 bbls superfine, deliverable the last week in October, at $5,15. The news from New York is rather more favorable, but the quotations from New Orleans exercise the greatest influence just now upon the views of holders; the latter anticipating a state of things consequent upon a heavy Southern demand, and will place matters here in an independent position as regards New York. The receipts too continue light, while stocks are quite moderate. The receipts to-day were 1,461 bbls, and the exports 2,135 do. Buyers and sellers of wheat were still apart in their views to-day, and but little business was transacted. The feeling, however, was better than yesterday. There were small sales of choice at $1,10 for red, and $1.14 for white. Receipts 5,417 bus. Corn very firm at 50c for ear in bulk, and 51@51c for shelled, including sacks. Oats are in better demand, with sales at 31c in bulk, and 33c in new gunnies. Prime qualities of barley and rye are firm and in good demand. In provisions there were sales of 300 bbls mess pork at $15,50 for country, and $18,75 for city. Small sales of bacon at 9c for shoulders, and 11½c for rib sides. Groceries in good demand at firm prices. Whiskey 15½c, with a moderate demand.

WINONA GRAIN TRADE.

The wheat market for the past week has been quite animated, though receipts have fallen off in consequence of almost continual rain, and the consequent bad roads. The receipts however average about 2,500 or 3,000 bus ₽ day.

The total receipts thus far of the present year's crop have been nearly 60,000 bus. Nearly if not quite all of this amount has been shipped to Milwaukee.

The market has fluctuated considerably the past week, ranging from 82c down to 72c. To-day the limits are 70@76c, as to the grade—prime winter commanding 85c.

It is estimated by competent judges that the wheat crop will reach between seven and eight million bushels. This would give us at least five and a half million bushels for export. The total exports from the State of the crop of 1859, were 1,050,685 bus, and 5,400 bbls of flour. Of this amount 441,000 bus, and 5,400 bbls of flour were shipped from Winona. The receipts at this point of the crop of 1860, are estimated at 2,000,000 bus, which we consider a very low estimate.—Winona Republican, 20th.

BOSTON FLOUR MARKET.

The Courier of Saturday says:

The market for flour is rather more settled but the demand continues moderate. We quote common brands western at $5,25@5,50; fancy brands at $5,50@5,75; extra brands at $5,75@5,87½; and $6,25@8,75 ₽ bbl for superior, including all kinds. Southern flour is quiet at $6,25 for fancy; 6,50@7 for extra; and $7,50@9,50 for superior ₽ bbl.

From Buffalo, Sept. 22d—Brig Empire State; schrs. Wings of the Morning, Cornelia, Imperial, Nightingale, W. J. Whaling, Three Bells.

THE WABASH VALLEY.

The Detroit Advertiser of Monday morning, has the following:

The steamer Columbia arrived from Thunder Bay, reports passing by the Wabash Valley on Thursday. The tug Oswego had not then got there. She was on the reef, in eight feet of water midships, twelve aft and ten forward, humped up, and both arches broken.—She is about ten miles from off Highland Sauble. The chances of saving her can be guessed at.

It appears that the Wabash Valley had a double collision. The propeller Iowa brought the crew of the schooner Caledonia here, that vessel having sunk after colliding with the Wabash Valley, and it will be remembered that the clerk of the latter, upon arriving at Detroit, reported that she had collided with an unknown propeller. In reference to this the Detroit Advertiser says:

The steamers arrived from Lake Superior report that the prop. Mineral Rock was run into when off Thunder Bay Islands the same night that the Wabash Valley was injured. The officers say that the Mineral Rock was found to be too far in shore and was being headed off, when some propeller, bound the same way, struck her on her starboard side, breaking in her side, and would have sunk her but for a deck load of iron rails or iron, which offered resistance enough to save her. It was feared the other propeller was injured, but as her lights were steadily seen as if she had kept on her course, it was believed she was not in danger, and the Rock also kept on her course. When this was heard of, confidence was entertained that the Wabash Valley was the unknown propeller that ran into the Mineral Rock.

LATER—THE WABASH VALLEY OFF.—The Chicago Times of yesterday learns by telegraph from Capt. A. E. GOODRICH, dated Detroit the 24th inst., that the propeller Wabash Valley has been got off, and is now in the river all right. She will be taken into dry dock at Detroit, and will be ready for sea in a few days.

HOW A DETROITER HAS LOST $346,000 WITHOUT FEELING IT.

Since the loss of the steamer Gazelle, belonging to E. B. Ward, Esq., we have had the curiosity to recur to the files of the Tribune to determine the aggregate amount of marine losses sustained by that gentleman:

Steamers.	What Year.	Am't Loss.
Atlantic, Lake Erie	1852	$ 75,000
Caspian, Cleveland	1852	80,000
St. Louis, Lake Erie	1852	15,000
E. K. Collins	1854	100,000
Detroit, Lake Huron	1856	10,000
Schooner Wyandotte, ashore	1856	10,000
Arctic, Lake Superior	1860	16,000
Gazelle, Lake Superior	1860	40,000
Total		$346,000

The loss by the steamer Arctic is the amount of a policy of insurance taken upon her by Mr. Ward, In addition to acting as insurer for all his own boats. The aggregate is enough to appal a man of ordinary spirit and energy. but it is not so large a sum as it would have cost Mr. Ward to have had his boats fully insured during all the time of running.—Det. Tribune.

ASHORE.

The Sheboygan Journal says:

The schr. Glad Tidings, of Cheboygan, Mich., went ashore about 8 miles north of this place, during the gale on Saturday the 8th inst. The crew narrowly escaped with their lives. She was loaded with lumber and bound from Cheboygan to Chicago. Will be off soon.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

The New York Central's business year closes regularly on the 30th of September. The actual earnings of the road for the first eleven months of the past two years is as follows:

	1858-59.	1859-60.	Increase.
October	$653,660	$720,202	$66,542
November	600,919	652,400	51,481
December	510,424	520,396	9,972
January	380,348	387,128	6,780
February	370,544	402,530	31,986
March	509,210	554,339	45,129
April	478,563	580,131	101,565
May	409,627	534,329	124,702
June	447,818	510,651	62,833
July	504,217	549,173	44,947
August	591,919	689,125	97,206
Total	$5,457,243	6,100,411	643,168

This increase (omitting the September returns) of $643,168 for the present year, equals more than 2½ ₽ cent upon the capital stock of the road. Last year the Central earned in September $748,593, with competition and the cutting down of prices. This year, on account of an increased tariff, immense moving crop, and large foreign demand for our cereals, a very considerable increase is expected. There are some who anticipate that the receipts will come very near if not quite to $1,000,000 during some of the autumnal months. For the ensuing winter the earnings will most probably exceed anything before in the history of the road.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I AM NOW SETTLED IN MY NEW store, corner of Wisconsin and Main Streets, (Young's Block) a few doors below the Post Office. I have taken this location because I think it preferable for the auction business to any other in the city. Thousands of people pass the corner where I now am, which pass no other in the city, for it is well known that every person goes to the Post Office. I call upon all who have any Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Furniture, or Apples, or anything whatever, that they want to dispose of at auction, to send it to my auction room. I will use all my energy to dispose of all goods consigned to me to the best advantage, and prompt returns will be made. I have been engaged in the auction business in this city for thirteen years, and I have tried to do what is right unto all.

I also continue my Land Agency business. My office is in the rear of my store, entrance on Main St. I will attend to all sales of Real Estate either at public or private sale. I will make exchange of real estate with all who want to exchange. Any who have goods to exchange for good real estate in the city or country, I can always get them up a good trade and some money with it; probably there was never a better time to invest in real estate than the present. Prices of lots in our city are very low; lands adjoining our city are exceedingly low, compared to prices four years ago; but these low prices will not last long, and it is generally believed by all who have lived as long in the West as I have, that next spring will see a sudden rise in real estate throughout this city and country.

This is the time to secure you a good homestead. Now is the time to make investments. I call upon all who have property to dispose of to leave a list of the same with me. I keep a register expressly for that purpose, which will be exposed to the inspection of all, from day to day. I shall keep myself posted in real estate, from day to day, as I have done for the last ten years, and will be happy to give information to all who may wish it.

GREAT BOOK SALE ON WEDNESDAY evening next, commencing at 7½ o'clock. I will sell without any reserve, a large collection of standard works, and great variety of Books of all kinds. The books have to be sold, they must and will and shall be sold, there has been money advanced on them, and it has to be paid, and there is no better way for young men and old men and heads of families, than to attend this sale of books. Fill your houses with books, so that your children can have plenty of books to read and stay home in the evening and read with them, instead of idling your time away down town doing nothing; make your home pleasant and happy by having plenty books around you, and enjoy them. How is it possible for any one to raise up a family as they should be without books? You may say that you cannot afford it. The amount of money—that money that is squandered in six months, would supply your family with a very handsome Library, which you and your children would take much pleasure in, and enjoy much more happiness. Let me once more say to you, attend the Book Sale which will commence on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents.

New and Important Arrangement.

To Shippers of Freight TO THE NORTH-WEST.

THE LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL UNITED STATES MAIL PACKET LINE

Running only between LA CROSSE & ST. PAUL for the transmission of Passengers, Freight and Mails.

THE PACKET LINE IS COMPOSED of the Steam Packets Favorite, Frank Steele, Winona, and Aeolian,

Acknowledged to be the best boats for the trade upon the Upper Mississippi, being of lighter draft than any now running.

This Line carries the United States Mail, and has not missed a daily connection since it was established, with the trains, either way, upon the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.

Shippers from Milwaukee will see that this is the most reliable Line of Boats for Freight, as the lightness of draft enables them to make their trip without delay, while by any other route delays are unavoidable.

One of the above Boats will leave La Crosse every evening, on the arrival of the 1:55 P. M. train from Milwaukee, and returning arrive at La Crosse in season to connect with the Express Passenger train, which leaves at 5 A. M.
